This Weekend the second collection is for Peter's Pence is the name for the financial support offered by the faithful to the Holy Father as a sign of sharing in the concern of the Successor of Peter for the many different needs of the Universal Church, and for the relief of those most in need. The faithful's offerings to the Holy Father are destined to Church needs, humanitarian initiatives, and social promotion projects, as well as to the support of the Holy See. The practice of providing material support to those charged with preaching the Gospel is as old as Christianity itself. St Vincent de Paul Society and CAFOD have produced a guide for Catholics for the General Election, with suggested questions to ask candidates. COULD YOU BE A DIOCESAN TRUSTEE?

Our Diocesan Trustees are responsible for the organisation of the Diocese and its assets. This includes both physical assets such as the churches and schools and intangible assets like the Church's reputation. The Catholic Diocese of Portsmouth is an incorporated charity with responsibility for numerous properties as well as employees across the parishes and in our central team. Consequently, we are always on the lookout for suitable lay people to serve on the Diocesan Board of Trustees and its sub-committees. We are especially looking for people with financial or business expertise, and for those with a legal background (especially in areas that are directly relevant to the Diocese, such as safeguarding), although persons with other types of experience may also be suitable. Being a Trustee is a genuine service to the Lord and His Church, thus ensuring that the diocesan mission of bringing people closer to Jesus Christ through His Church might flourish. If you would like to know more and wish to help, please contact Deacon Tony Darlison, Secretary of the Board of Trustees on: tdarlison@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk

PRAYER FOR THE GOLDEN JUBILEE OF THE BAMENDA-PORTSMOUTH LINK

Heavenly Father,

We thank you for the bond of love and friendship which has existed between the Archdiocese of Bamenda and the Diocese of Portsmouth for fifty years. We are deeply grateful to you for the spiritual and material benefits this union has yielded. Guided by your Word and filled with your Holy Spirit, may we receive the grace to grow in partnership and understanding as we celebrate as one body, sharing in the one bread of Christ. Bless those who have made selfless sacrifices to sustain us, especially the priests who have served in our dioceses. May their work be rewarded in the abundance of your grace. May Mary Immaculate, St Joseph, St Edmund & Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati, our Patrons, intercede for us Amen.

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time – 2024 – Hook

Storms. Many moons ago when I was just seventeen, I was press ganged into crewing for one of the tall ships. The ship was an 88-foot ketch called the Rona. It was 2am one mid-February when we were caught off Jersey in a Force 8 gale. I was selected to keep watch off the bow end, which involved being strapped to the railings, to keep an eye for passing vessels across the busiest shipping lane in the world. In the midst of the nightmare conditions, I woke up to the loudest noise. Then a light, seemingly as bright as the sun, appeared above us. As plain as day I came face to face with a wall of red completely filling my horizon. In the middle of the red was a white strip extending upwards. It was the first letter of Townsend Thoreson. We had almost collided with the hugest of ships, which I just didn't see.

Storms, in all their forms, cultivate fear. Fear disorientates. It prevents us from seeing the truth, the wood for the trees. Fear makes us lose perspective. Fear counters faith. In their fear

'the disciples woke him..., "Teacher, don't you care if we drown?"'

Despite their panic – 'Sea of Galilee' squalls are notoriously ferocious – the disciples knew where to find calm. They chose to place their trust in the Lord over and above their fear.

This is surely the lesson for us today. When storms come our way Brothers and Sisters; when we are bereft, bereaved, beaten down, disorientated, powerless; the Lord invites us to turn to Him, precisely then. Even, and especially, when the storm is self-inflicted, when we've made mistakes, perhaps large ones, even then God can and will turn it around if we choose to trust Him.

Storms need not lead to hopelessness. In the light of faith, they can lead us to hope, and to an even greater awareness of God's faithfulness. Trust Him in, and above, all things.

Mark 4:35-41

God bless
Fr John
